Integrations

Security Assertion Markup Language (SAML) is an open standard that allows identity providers (IdP) to pass authorization credentials to service providers (SP).

SAML transactions use Extensible Markup Language (XML) for standardized communications between the identity provider and service providers. SAML is the link between the authentication of a user’s identity and the authorization to use a service.

Integration	Description
Microsoft Azure	SAML 2.0 integration over Azure Active Directory admin portal

Created 2023-11-24 13:57:36 UTC
Updated 2026-01-22 10:49:25 UTC